Regulations

1. The total number of credits required for graduation is 128, including 28 university-required credits, 9 college-required credits, 40 department-required credits, and 51 professional elective credits.
2. Students in their first to third years may take 16–25 credits per semester, while fourth-year students may take 9–25 credits. Detailed regulations are governed by the University Academic Regulations.
3. In accordance with the University's implementation guidelines for Chinese proficiency, English proficiency, information technology competency, and physical fitness, students must pass all required assessments to be eligible for graduation.
4. Students must meet the assessment standards stipulated in the Department's Implementation Guidelines for Student Professional Competency Assessment before graduation. Certificates obtained by students who have passed the University's Information Literacy Assessment shall also be recognized by the Department as certificates for basic workplace information application skills.
5. The curriculum consists of three modules: the Business Tourism Module, the Fashion and Trends Module, and the English Language Education Module. Students who complete 10 credits or more of professional elective courses in any one module shall be awarded a certificate of completion for that module.
6. Practical Project (I) and Practical Project (II) shall be offered in accordance with the planning of each course module of the Department and shall be listed as required courses for each module.
7. Students may take courses not offered by the Department from other departments. Credits earned from such courses, upon review and approval by the Department, may be counted as professional elective credits of the Department, up to a maximum of 12 credits. Credits earned from interdisciplinary programs may be counted separately. Students may also take courses not offered by the Department at other institutions; however, this is limited to one course only. The credits earned shall be calculated together with credits earned from courses taken in other departments. Courses taken at other institutions shall be handled in accordance with the University's Implementation Guidelines for Intercollegiate Course Selection.
8. Students participating in the Ministry of National Defense's Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) who have completed winter or summer training and obtained relevant proof may apply for credit exemption for the Department's internship courses and credits. Students applying for exemption from a full-semester internship must complete registration during the semester in which the full-semester internship is implemented and must also enroll in at least 3 additional credits.

9. Students admitted to the Department in Academic Year 111 (2022) through the athletic achievement admission track may have credits earned from the Sports and Health Management Program counted toward graduation credits. Among these credits, credits from the core courses of the program may be recognized as 15 credits of department-required courses, while credits from elective courses may be counted as 20 credits of professional electives of the Department.
