Regulations

1. The total number of credits required for graduation is 128, including 28 university-required credits, 9 college-required credits, 40 department-required credits, and 51 professional elective credits.

2. Students in their first to third years may take 16–25 credits per semester, while fourth-year students may take 9–25 credits. Detailed regulations are governed by the University Academic Regulations.

3. In accordance with the University's implementation guidelines for Chinese proficiency, English proficiency, information technology competency, and physical fitness, students must pass all required assessments to be eligible for graduation.

4. Students must meet the assessment standards stipulated in the Department's Implementation Guidelines for Student Professional Competency Assessment before graduation. Certificates obtained by students who have passed the University's Information Literacy Assessment shall also be recognized by the Department as certificates for basic workplace information application skills.

5. The curriculum consists of three modules: the Business Tourism Module, the Fashion and Trends Module, and the English Language Education Module. Students who complete 10 credits or more of professional elective courses in any one module shall be awarded a certificate of completion for that module.

6. Practical Project (I) and Practical Project (II) shall be offered in accordance with the planning of each course module of the Department and shall be listed as required courses for each module.

7. Students of the Department must complete one of the following requirements before graduation:

1. Any one module offered by the Department;
2. Any interdisciplinary credit program offered by the University; or
3. Any minor or double major.

8. Students may take courses from other departments if such courses are not offered by this Department. Credits earned with passing grades, upon review and approval by the Department, may be counted as professional elective credits of the Department, up to a maximum of 20 credits, including credits from interdisciplinary credit programs. Students may also take courses not offered by the Department at other institutions; however, this is limited to one course only. The credits earned shall be included in the calculation of credits taken from other departments. All courses taken at other institutions shall be handled in accordance with the University's Implementation Guidelines for Intercollegiate Course Selection.

9. Students participating in the Ministry of National Defense's Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) who have completed winter or summer training and obtained relevant proof may apply for credit exemption for the Department's internship courses and credits, up to a maximum of 10 credits. Students applying for exemption from a full-semester internship must complete registration during the semester in which the full-semester internship is conducted and must also enroll in at least 3 additional credits.

10. For the Department's courses, including Career and Employment Counseling, Internship, Professional Internship (I), Professional Internship (II), Professional Internship (III), Professional Internship (IV), Professional Internship (V), Professional Internship (VI), Professional Internship (VII), Professional Internship (VIII), and Professional Internship (IX), each credit shall correspond to no more than 80 hours of student internship.
